

God
shed His
grace
on thee

A decorative arrangement of black stars is positioned to the left of the text. The stars are of varying sizes and are clustered together, forming a shape that resembles a stylized star or a small constellation. Some stars are larger and more prominent, while others are smaller and more numerous, creating a sense of depth and texture.